Customer Identification Program ("CIP") regulations issued under the USA Patriot Act require financial institutions to obtain and verify certain identifying information from each person or entity that opens a mutual fund account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents. We may not be able to establish an account, or we may close your existing account and/or redeem your shares involuntarily, if you do not provide sufficient information within the relevant time periods. The Financial Crimes Enforcement Network ("FinCEN") rule addressing "Customer Due Diligence Requirements for Financial Institutions" also requires mutual funds to obtain and verify that information. It also requires we record the identity of beneficial owners of legal entity customers and government entities. Legal entity customers and government entities are required to complete a Certification of Beneficial Owners.

TERMS OF LETTER OF INTENT AND ESCROW (Applicable to Class A Shares only)

- By checking Box 1 (on page 3) and signing the application (on page 5), the investor is entitled to make each purchase at the public offering price applicable to a single transaction of the dollar amount checked above and agrees to be bound by the terms and conditions applicable to Letters of Intent (the "Letter") appearing below.

- The investor intends to purchase, with a sales charge, within a thirteen (13) month period, Class A Shares of the Fund through a single selected broker/dealer or the Distributor. Class A Shares of the Fund previously purchased by the investor, also with a sales charge, and which are still owned by the investor (valued at the higher of the public offering price on the date of this Letter or the initial purchase price, whichever is higher) may also be included in determining the applicable reduction.

- An aggregate amount of at least $25,000 together with shares owned by the investor as of the date of this Letter (valued at the higher of the public offering price on the date of this Letter or the initial purchase price, whichever is higher), will equal or exceed the minimum amount checked above.

- If shares purchased by the investor, added to the value of shares owned by the investor as of the date of the Letter, do not aggregate to the minimum amount specified above, the investor will pay the increased amount of sales charge prescribed in the terms of escrow below.

- The commission to the broker/dealer, if any, named herein shall be at the rate applicable to the minimum amount of the investor's specified intended purchases checked above. If the investor's actual market value at the time the Letter is established plus any new purchase(s) does not reach this minimum amount, the commissions previously paid to the dealer will be adjusted to the rate applicable to the investor's total purchases.

- The investor's broker/dealer shall refer to this Letter when placing any future purchase orders for the investor while this Letter is in effect.

1. The Escrow shall operate as follows: Out of the initial purchase (or subsequent purchases if necessary), 3% of the dollar amount specified in the Letter of Intent (computed to the nearest full share) shall be held in escrow in shares of the Fund by the Agent. All dividends and any capital gains distributions on the escrowed shares will be credited to the investor's account.

2. If the total minimum investment specified under the Letter is completed within a thirteen-month period, the escrowed shares will be promptly released to the investor. However, shares disposed of prior to completion of the purchase requirement under the Letter will be deducted from the amount required to complete the investment commitment.

3. If the total purchases pursuant to the Letter are less than the amount specified in the Letter as the intended aggregate purchases, the investor must remit to the Distributor an amount equal to the difference between the dollar amount of sales charges actually paid and the amount of sales charges which would have been paid if the total amount purchased had been made at a single time. If such difference in sales charges is not paid within twenty days after receipt of a request from the Distributor or the broker/dealer, the Distributor will, within sixty days after the expiration of the Letter, redeem the number of escrowed shares necessary to realize such difference in sales charges. Full shares and any cash proceeds for a fractional share remaining after such redemption will be released to the investor. The escrow of shares will not be released until any additional sales charge due has been paid as stated in this section.

4. By checking Box 1 (on page 3) and signing the application (on page 5), the investor irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Agent or the Distributor as the investor's attorney to surrender for redemption any or all escrowed shares on the books of the Fund.

CERTIFICATION REGARDING BENEFICIAL OWNERS OF LEGAL ENTITY CUSTOMERS

I. GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

What is this form?

To help the government fight financial crime, Federal regulation requires certain financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information about the beneficial owners of legal entity customers. Legal entities can be abused to disguise involvement in terrorist financing, money laundering, tax evasion, corruption, fraud, and other financial crimes. Requiring the disclosure of key individuals who own or control a legal entity (i.e., the beneficial owners) helps law enforcement investigate and prosecute these crimes.

Who has to complete this form?

This form must be completed by the person opening a new account on behalf of a legal entity with any of the following U.S. financial institutions: (i) a bank or credit union; (ii) a broker or dealer in securities; (iii) a mutual fund; (iv) a futures commission merchant; or (v) an introducing broker in commodities.

For the purposes of this form, a legal entity includes a corporation, limited liability company, or other entity that is created by filing of a public document with a Secretary of State or similar office, a general partnership, and any similar business entity formed in the United States or a foreign country. Legal entity does not include sole proprietorships, unincorporated associations, or natural persons opening accounts on their own behalf.

What information do I have to provide?

This form requires you to provide the name, address, date of birth and Social Security number (or passport number or other similar information, in the case of Non-U.S. Persons) for the following individuals (i.e., the beneficial owners):

- i. Each individual, if any, who owns, directly or indirectly, 25 percent or more of the equity interests of the legal entity customer (e.g., each natural person that owns 25 percent or more of the shares of a corporation); and
- ii. An individual with significant responsibility for managing the legal entity customer (e.g., a Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Operating Officer, Managing Member, General Partner, President, Vice President, or Treasurer).

The number of individuals that satisfy this definition of “beneficial owner” may vary. Under section (i), depending on the factual circumstances, up to four individuals (but as few as zero) may need to be identified. Regardless of the number of individuals identified under section (i), you must provide the identifying information of one individual under section (ii). It is possible that in some circumstances the same individual might be identified under both sections (e.g., the President of Acme, Inc. who also holds a 30% equity interest). Thus, a completed form will contain the identifying information of at least one individual (under section (ii)), and up to five individuals (i.e., one individual under section (ii) and four 25 percent equity holders under section (i)).

The financial institution may also ask to see a copy of a driver’s license or other identifying document for each beneficial owner listed on this form.
